

Friday 21st October

Conference Programme

Time	Speaker	Subject
9.00	TEA &amp; COFFEE	ARRIVE
10.00	Doug Hulyer Chair Jurassic Coast Steering group Colin Prosser President, GA	Introduction
10.10	Tim Badman, IUCN	World Heritage – a global context
	Triassic
10.30	Mike Benton Bristol University	Overview Fossil vertebrates along the Jurassic Coast
10.50	Richard Scriven	Current Research Finding the Permo-Triassic boundary
11.05	Rob Coram	Current Research Otter Sandstone – new finds
	Jurassic
11.20	Richard Twichett Natural History Museum	Overview Current research/overview of the Jurassic
11.40-12.00	TEA &amp; COFFEE	POSTERS
12.00	Malcolm Hart Plymouth University	Current Research Ear Bones and hooks: a micropalaeontological approach to investigating Jurassic squid-like cephalopods
	Cretaceous
12.15	Rory Mortimore Chalk Rock	Overview Cretaceous gems of the Jurassic Heritage Coastline
	Quaternary
12.35	Speaker to be confirmed	Overview Current research/overview of Quaternary and a reflection on the Anthropocene relationship with the Jurassic Coast
12.55-14.00	LUNCH	POSTERS
	Geomorphology
14.00	Denys Brunsdon	Overview Current research/overview of Jurassic Coast coastal geomorphology
14.20	Richard Edmonds	Current Research Mapping the Great Undercliffs landslides
	Learning and communication
14.35	Anjana Ford Jurassic Coast Team	Overview Jurassic Coast educational initiatives
14.55	Ashley Cahill	Current experience Super teacher – working with the Jurassic Coast
15.10-15.30	TEA &amp; COFFEE	POSTERS
15.30	Sam Scriven Jurassic Coast Team	Overview Jurassic Coast interpretation
15.50	Rose Ferraby Exeter University	Current research Exploring people's relationship with the Jurassic Coast
16.05	Discussion and conclusions
17.00	FINISH

Saturday 22nd October

Field visits (details to be provided)

Trip 1

A visit to the Steve Etches Kimmeridge collection at the Museum of Jurassic Marine Life followed by two options: a visit to Kimmeridge Bay or a visit to see dinosaur footprints on Purbeck.

Trip 2

A Portland walking excursion setting off from the Portland Heights Hotel.

