

Festival of Geology 2019

Talks Programme

Professor Hazel Rymer, Open University will give a talk on : The Volcanoes of Iceland.

Dr Jeremy Young, UCL, will give a talk on : Coccolithophores - extraordinary microfossils now in the mainstream of global change research and an example of how to make specialist knowledge accessible online.

Professor Sarah Gabbott, University of Leicester, will give a talk on: The weird and the wonderful: interpreting the evolution of life through fossils.